

Annecy Itinerary

Stay

Annecy, Talloires, or anywhere around Lake Annecy, just stay somewhere pretty and near a bus stop or bikes. You only really need one day in Old Town, so don't stress about being walking-distance to the canals.

Transportation

Annecy is super easy to reach, you can take a 45-minute bus or car ride from Geneva (buses are ~€5–€10), or hop on the train from Paris (~3.5 hours, ~€50). Both are smooth and scenic.

Day 1 – Explore Old Town & Bike the Lakeside

Stay: Annecy / Talloires / Surrounding lakeside villages

Morning

- Rent e-bikes (book through your hotel if possible, but book early!)
- Ride along the lake through Talloires & Saint-Bernard-de-Menthon
 - Postcard views, little harbors, mountain peaks everywhere.

Lunch

- Grab a sandwich at La Fermette (trust me, order the “rocket” sandwich)
- Picnic by the lake 🍃

Afternoon

- Stroll Old Town Annecy
- Canals, pastel houses, cafés, gelato stops
- Relax at the lake or spa

Dinner

- Local French bistro in town

Day 2 – Mountains & Hikes

Morning

Hike options (pick based on energy level):

- Château de Menthon-Saint-Bernard + church viewpoint
- Cascade d'Angon (not stroller-friendly but beautiful)
- Any well-marked lake trail, you can't go wrong

Lunch

- Local boulangerie or lakeside café

Afternoon

- Spa / lake swim / relax time
- Shopping back in Old Town Annecy

Dinner

- Try a traditional Savoyard restaurant or splurge on a Michelin experience (Esquisse in town looks incredible, book ahead!)

Day 3 – Lake Day & Talloires Dinner

Morning

- 🛶 Get on the water: rent a boat, kayak, or paddleboard
(My only regret: not doing TWO lake days.)

Lunch

- Light bite, bring sandwiches on the boat, or picnic on the lake

Afternoon

- Explore Talloires, it's tiny, chic, and so romantic

Dinner

- Book dinner in Talloires for sunset, there is another Michelin restaurant (The Restaurant of Jean Sulpice)
 - I ate at Restaurant La Savoyarde, it was delicious and won't break the bank

Tips

- Book e-bikes early (hotel bikes go fast)
 - Lake route = better views | Mountain route = safer bike lane
 - Bring a swimsuit everywhere, the lake will tempt you

Smart Splurges & Saves

- Splurge: beautiful hotel, boat day, spa
- Save: sandwiches, bakeries, public buses between towns

Annecy has Michelin stars galore, go for it if you're a foodie.
If not? Picnic!
